DECLARATION OF FAITH

THE NICENE CREED - Traditional

We believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible;

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of the Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father by whom all things were made; who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary, and was made man and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead, whose kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And we believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins. And we look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERTORY

Doxology *Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.*

Prayer of Dedication

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

Heavenly Father, we come to you with broken lives and weak wills. We have sinned against you, our neighbor, and ourselves. We humbly repent of our sins and with contrite hearts seek your pardon, forgiveness and restoration. We ask all these things in the merciful name of your son, Jesus Christ.

(Take a few moments for silent confession.)

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

After the Words of Institution, we invite you to come forward to receive bread from either plate. You will then move to the cup, dip your bread in the cup, and partake of both elements together. You then return to your seat for quiet reflection and prayer.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of Your name:

SANCTUS (Choir) "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord" (Blue Hymnal 581)

Celebrant: Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

Celebrant: On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Him. Sanctify us also so that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say: Our Father, who art in heaven hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

*CONGREGATIONAL HYMN (All)

"All Must Be Well"

Mary Bowley Peters & Matthew Smith

Through the love of God our Savior, all will be well
Free and changeless is His favor, all is well
Precious is the blood that healed us
Perfect is the grace that sealed us
Strong the hand stretched forth to shield us
All must be well

Though we pass through tribulation, all will be well
Ours is such a full salvation, all is well
Happy still in God confiding
Fruitful if in Christ abiding
Steadfast through the Spirit's guiding
All must be well

We expect a bright tomorrow; all will be well
Faith can sing through days of sorrow, all is well
On our Father's love relying
Jesus every need supplying
Yes in living or in dying
All must be well

On our Father's love relying
Jesus every need supplying
Yes in living or in dying
All must be well

Women's Book Club

The Women's Book Club will meet on Monday, February 27, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 103 to discuss The Submission by Amy Waldman.

Amy Waldman has performed a rare and dangerous feat in writing an airtight, multi-viewed, highly readable post-9/11 novel. When a Muslim architect wins a blind contest to design a Ground Zero Memorial, a city of eleven million people takes notice. Waldman, a former bureau chief for the New York Times, explores a diversity of viewpoints around this fictional event, bringing in politicians, businessmen, journalists, activists, and normal people whose lives--whether by happenstance, choice, or even due to their country of origin--get caught up in the controversy. Incredibly, she manages to keep all the balls in the air without ever fumbling. The story is moving and keeps the pages turning, but there are also bigger themes at work: of individuals versus groups; about the purpose of art, commerce, government, and journalism in society; of how people respond to grief and terror. The result is honest, compelling, and breathtaking.

Missions/Local Ministry Team

THE LOCAL MINISTRY TEAM AT MPC is partnering with several local organizations as we rededicate ourselves to mission and ministry in our local community. Here's how you can help:

1. The Sunday Breakfast Mission: On Thursday, February 2 at 6:00 p.m., we will be serving dinner at the Sunday Breakfast Mission in Philadelphia. Their address is 302 N. 13th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107. There is a small parking lot in the back of the mission, off of Pearl Street. You can enter on Pearl Street, or walk around to the main entrance on 13th Street. The Sunday Breakfast Mission is a program that serves the homeless, addicted, and impoverished through Christ-centered programs to meet their spiritual, social, and physical needs. Their primary goal is to restore people to right relationships with God, their families, and society. For more information, visit their website at sundaybreakfastmission.org. This is our first visit to the mission in an attempt to establish a regular and ongoing partnership. If you are interested in joining in this endeavor, or you have questions, please contact Theresa Belville at littleturtlemama@gmail.com.
2. Unity Center: Do you enjoy spending time with children? We are looking for servants willing to tutor students from the Chester-Upland School district. The only skill required is your willingness to be present. If you feel led to engage in this ministry, please contact Rev. Passante at nikki@mediapresbyterian.org. The tutoring program runs Monday through Thursday, from 3:30 - 6:00 p.m., at the Student Center in the Unity Center at 733 W. 9th Street in Chester.
3. Chester Build: We have currently identified a home in Chester that is in need of repair work. Several of us, including some of our Senior Craftsmen, have visited this family on a regular basis since October. After contractors survey and resolve structural issues, our congregation is able to do much of the work. We will be scheduling workdays to bring our construction skills to the table.

Do you feel led to get involved? Do you have a gift? We'll take it. Tell us what your talent is and we'll figure out how to use it. We have the wonderful problem of having people who want to help, but not having enough opportunities! In response, we are putting together a database of people's gifts and talents so that we can match these with identified needs. Please take our talent survey to help us connect you with service opportunities at: <http://goo.gl/vPC5q>. There is a link available on both the website and our Facebook page as well.

Please be sure to check our website under the 'Missions' link, and click on 'Ways to Serve' for updated information.
