Our 15th Year!

Mars Hill
July 18-24,
2010

About Mars Hill

MPC has been making the trek to Mars Hill, NC as a church family for 15 years. Our goal has always been the same, to heed the call of God and to tangibly be the body of Christ. We're excited for another year of hard work, summer heat, long days, and lots of laughter and fun. This annual mission is open to the whole church family. We hope you'll join us. We promise you'll be thrilled you did!

Why we go

- To serve, in the name of Jesus Christ, those in need.
- To build Christian community through service.
- To be challenged spiritually in the context of mission and service.
- To have fun!

What we do

There will be a worship service and orientation on the night of our arrival, July 18. At this meeting, adults and youth will be divided into work teams and each team will be given their assignment. Assignments can be anything from digging wells, building decks, laying foundation...you name it, we've done it! Each day the teams will work on their assigned projects. Children will have separate activities and service projects under the direction of Cara Cavicchia, Director of Children's Ministry. Each evening will include a time of fellowship and worship.

Where we stay

Mars Hill College will be our home for the week and most of our meals will be in their dining hall.

Cost

The cost for the week is $220 per adult and $175 for each child under 8. A $25.00 per individual or $50.00 per family deposit, along with a completed registration form, must be turned in to the church office no later than Sunday, June 27. Please make checks payable to Media Presbyterian Church, noting Mars Hill Mission Trip. To reserve your spot, a registration form and deposit must be submitted to the church office, Attn: Laura.

An information booklet with directions, what to bring, etc. will be given out before the trip. Please contact any member of the staff with questions.

Youth and family scholarships are available—contact Rev. Bill Borrer.
